Lisbon, September 20, N. S.

ON the 8th Inſtant arrived here, on Board the Packet-Boat from England, the Conde de Pinos, who brings Letters of Credence from the Emperour, as Envoy Extraordinary to this Court, but has not yet taken upon him the Character: He is a Spaniſh Nobleman, who followed the Emperour's Party in the late War, was created Conde by his Imperial Majeſty, when at Barcelona, and has now a Regiment of Horſe in his Service. By a ſmall Veſſel from St. Michael one of the Iſlands of the Azores, it is adviſed, that the Pyrates do very much infeſt thoſe Iſlands, and have the Boldneſs to ſend their Boats in the Night-Time, and carry off Merchant-Ships which are riding in their Harbours. Her Portugueze Majeſty is Hourly expected to be brought to Bed.

Turin, Sept. 29, N. S. Madame Royale having been for ſome Days paſt in a Way of Recovery beyond all Expectation, the King and Prince have paſſed that time at the Veneria in Shooting and Stag-hunting. There is a Talk of a great Reform in this King's Troops; viz. two Regiments of Dragoons to be diſmounted, three or four Battallions to be broke, and five Men of a Company of the reſt of the Infantry reduced.

Hanover, Oct. 5, N. S. M. Wallenrodt, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Pruſſia, received on Friday laſt His Majeſty's Reſolution to go to Berlin, and on Saturday in the Afternoon ſet out for his Court to carry that News. The Lord Viſcount Townſhend and the Lord Carteret will ſet out from hence Tomorrow Morning to go by the Way of Gyſhorn, Tangermunde and Spandau, in order to be at Berlin next Friday Night. The King takes the ſame Route, but does not ſet out till Thurſday, and makes only two Days Journey of it. After a ſhort Stay at Berlin, His Majeſty will go from thence directly to the Gohre. Prince Frederick goes thither alſo, and it is ſaid will ſet out next Monday.

Hague, Oct. 8, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant the States General took into Conſideration the Nomination, made by the States of Zealand, of M. Hop to go Envoy to the Court of Great Britain, which was approved. The Nomination of M. Vander Meer to the Embaſſy of Spain was likewiſe approved. The States ſent ſome Days ago a Deputation to the Marqueſs de Monteleone, to give him Notice, that the Squadron for the Mediterranean is very near ready to ſail, and to deſire him to write to his Court, that the ſaid Squadron may be received into the Spaniſh Ports, and ſupplied with the Neceſſaries they may want. Deputies are come hither from all the Chambers of the Eaſt-India Company, to ſettle Inſtructions for their Governours and Officers in the Indies, which are to be ſent thither by the next Ships. M. Baerle, a Relation of the great Penſionary, is made Secretary of the Admiralty of Rotterdam.
